

Suzuki Violin Beginner Group Classes

At The Port Jefferson Village Center

BEGINNER Group Violin Lessons

With Natalie Kress

The Suzuki Violin Beginner Group Lessons offer students of various ages and skill levels the opportunity to learn and advance their craft of music from the basics to more advanced techniques. Beginner group violin class will offer an introduction to students 4-6 years old using fun songs and games. By the end of the six week session students will be able to name all the parts of the instrument, learn basic rhythms and music notes, and perform their first piece with open strings. The six week session will culminate in a concert performance of "Twinkle Twinkle Little Star" using open strings alongside the older group classes. Students must provide their own instruments.

Instructor's Background:

Praised by the New York Times for her "splendid playing", 26 year old Natalie Kress has already begun a successful career as a violinist; highlights of which include three summers as a Violin Fellow at the Tanglewood Music Center where she received the 2012 Jules C. Reiner Violin Prize; as well as performing in Carnegie Hall as concertmaster of the New York Youth Symphony in 2010. She is also a member of the Harbor Front Trio, our 'Ensemble in Residence' here at the Village Center, and serves as Artistic Director of the Three Village Chamber Players. In addition to her work at the Village Center, Natalie enjoys teaching a devoted studio of violin students, coaching the violin sections of the Long Island Youth Orchestra, and performing around the NY and Long Island areas.
