

Suzuki Violin Group Classes

At The Port Jefferson Village Center

Group Violin Lessons

With Natalie Kress

The Suzuki Violin Group Lessons offer students of various ages and skill levels the opportunity to learn and advance their craft of music from the basics to more advanced techniques. Beginner group violin class will offer an introduction to students 4-6 years old using fun songs and games. The Suzuki Violin Intermediate Group Classes offers students of various ages and skill levels the opportunity to learn and advance their craft of music from the basics to more advanced techniques. Intermediate group violin class will offer a chance to learn with others between the ages of 5-10. Advanced group violin class will offer a chance to learn with others between the ages of 7-11. By the end of the six week session students will be able to read and play all music notes, read advanced rhythms, and perform with a beautiful sound and correct positioning.

Instructor's Background:

Praised by the New York Times for her "splendid playing", 26 year old Natalie Kress has already begun a successful career as a violinist; highlights of which include three summers as a Violin Fellow at the Tanglewood Music Center where she received the 2012 Jules C. Reiner Violin Prize; as well as performing in Carnegie Hall as concertmaster of the New York Youth Symphony in 2010. Natalie received her bachelors and master's degrees in violin performance and psychology from Stony Brook University and is currently Artistic Director of Three Village Chamber Players which performs free concerts for the community throughout Long Island. In addition to her work at the Village Center, Natalie enjoys teaching a devoted studio of violin students, coaching the violin sections of the Long Island Youth Orchestra, and performing around the NY and Long Island areas.
